

Book Cover Book Project

To make your book cover, cut construction paper to 9" X 18". Fold paper in half (9"X9" square) Fold both outside edges in 2 ½ " to make flaps.

Front:

Design a new cover for your book. Include a colorful illustration, title (neatly printed), and the author's name.

Front Flap:

Describe the main character, pointing out character traits with specific examples from the book. OR list character traits (with examples) for two or more characters.

Inside:

Illustrate the setting and explain it.

Illustrate an important scene and explain it.

Back:

Write a summary, in your own words, that covers the most important points of the novel explaining the conflict and plot elements.

Back Flap:

Write a personal review of the book. How would you rate the book and why? Give specific reasons why you would recommend this book to other readers.

Neat/Creative/Effort:

Your book cover should be free of grammar/spelling errors, be typed or neatly written in ink, and colorful.
